Newsletter

Term 4 – 24 March 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Good to be Green

Congratulations to Libbi Rickards, Eryn Whiting, Emile Kvedaraviciute, Matthew Vernau-Chapman, Mason Jennings, Zeinab Mirzad, Bethany Marques, Kara Mannering, Jessica Green and Kira Kurcisa who have all achieved their Good to be Green certificates this morning.

Well done to Maisie Bradley, Sonni Farrow, Rosa Truong, Harry Sparks, Lucy Tanton-Davies and Nyal Kendall who have worked hard to gain their second Good to be Green Certificates!

Author Visit

David Fuller, the author of the Alfie Jones series of books joined us last Friday for a literacy workshop day. The children had a great day, and were inspired by his workshop.

"I like acting out the story" ~ Harry George

"He was funny, I would like to read his books" ~ Ben Thompson

"He was very imaginative and he was lovely" ~ Libbi Rickards

"He made us want to be authors" ~ Lewis Tanton and Phoebe Beckett

Kent Messenger

The Kent Messenger have featured Rowan class this week as budding artists. They were asked to draw portraits of the KM and KMFM reporters. Well done Rowan. Remember to look at the Mothers Day portraits from Oak, Ash and Beech Classes also in this weeks' edition.

Red Nose Day

It was lovely to see the children make such an effort with their red clothing today. The children have been designing a picture out of the donations you made with Mrs Clarkson, the Art Teacher.

Pobble Letter

Just a final reminder to return the signed consent letter regarding our new writing platform "Pobble".
