Newsletter

Term 5 – 5 May 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

This will be my last newsletter for a while, as I will be leaving today for my maternity leave. I wish you a warm and sunny Summer. Good luck Year 6 with your SATS! I am sure you will be pleased to see Mr Hellman who will be returning as Acting Headteacher.

Good to be Green

The children have excelled this week in achieving their Good to be Green certificates. Well done!

1 st Certificate	~
2 nd Certificate	~	James Tanton
3 rd Certificate	~	Ruby Berry

Sats Week

May I remind you that next week is SATS week for both Year 2 and Year 6. It is important that your child arrives at school on time, as the tests start promptly after registration. All Year 6 children may attend Breakfast Club free of charge next week.

Phonics Stay and Play Session

Thank you to all the parents who dropped into see their children in the Phonics Stay and Play sessions. The children were very excited to see you join in. I am sure this will help you support your child at home.

Easter Bonnet Competition

We have seen some fantastic Easter bonnets over the last week. The PFA have kindly donated prizes for the top two bonnets from each class, made by the children. Well done to all those who took part, and congratulations to all the winners:- Lola-Mae Donnison and Luke Munro from Oak, Michail Popov and Kacey-Mai Gilbert from Ash, Henry Chapman and Annie Erebor from Beech, Jack Etheridge and Holly Barham from Rowan, Ociana Cheek and Ratsvet Mincheva from Willow.

As we had no entries for Maple and Sycamore class, we awarded two additional prizes for highly commended bonnets to Jacob Landman in Oak Class, and Michael Farrow in Ash Class.

Red Nose Donations

A belated thank you for all your Red Nose day donations, you raised £293.66!
